Quality of mercy

The quality of mercy is not strain'd;
It droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath. It is twice blest:

It blesseth him that gives, and him that takes.
'Tis mightiest in the mightiest; it becomes
The throned monarch better than his crown.
His sceptre shows the force of temporal power,
The attribute to awe and majesty,
Wherein doth sit the dread and fear of kings;
But mercy is above this sceptred sway;
It is enthroned in the heart of kings;
It is an attribute to God himself;
And earthly power doth then show likest God's
When mercy seasons justice.

The blind boy

O say what is that thing call'd light,
Which I must ne'er enjoy.
What are the blessings of the sight,
O tell your poor blind boy!

You talk of wondrous things you see,
You say the sun shines bright;
I feel him warm, but how can he
Or make it day or night?

My day or night myself I make,
When'er I sleep or play;
And could I ever keep awake
With me 'twere always day.

With heavy sighs I often hear
You mourn my hapless woe;
But sure with patience I can bear
A loss I ne'er can know.

Then let not what I cannot have
My cheer of mind destroy :
Whilst thus I sing, I am a king,
Although a poor blind boy.

Grandma climbs a tree.

The poet Ruskin Bond calls his grandmother as 'Genius' because she could climb a tree. Even at the age of 62, she was passionate to climb a tree and learnt it from her loving brother at the age of six. Everybody feared that granny would fall from a tree one day.

One day she climbed a tree but could not come down. After the rescue doctor recommended rest for a week. But for granny it was like a brief season in hell. She demanded a house to be built in a tree. The poet's father, who was dutiful, fulfilled his mother's wish, so that granny moved up and enjoyed as her wish.

Jazz poem two

The Jazz player is like an Ancient Mariner. He has a wrinkled face, closed eyes with full of wearies. His collar frayed, faded blue old shirt turned dark sweat. Old necktie undone drops, old jacket holding his sagging stomach. He had a rundown shoes having paper in them. His unshaven face shows pain. Across his chest lies an old alto saxophone. He feels, he has a message for the people of the world.

What message does the Jazz player want to convey?

The Jazz player wants to convey to the world that he is Black man who can draw people towards him through his music.

Why do you think the Jazz player keeps his head down?

The Jazz player is a poor, old man. He has led a hard life. He is tired and keeps his head down.

'He is no longer a man' says the poet. Who else is he supposed to be if he is no longer a man?

The Jazz player forgets everything when he plays the music to preach the world. At that moment he feels like a bird which gathers his wings and flies higher and higher.

SONG OF INDIA

This poem is a conversation between V.K.Gokak and the Motherland. The poet wishes to sing about the beauty of INDIA (Himalayas, oceans, temples, industrial progress, seers and prophets). The poet wants to present glorious picture of the past and also wishes to paint India's natural beauty. The motherland wants him to sing about troubled and helpless people (beggars, lepers, filths and strikes). The motherland writes the destiny of our nation in the Book of Morrow. In this book she wants a glorious INDIA where people do not suffer and are free from the darkness of ignorance.

1. "Nervous I yet would ask Deeming it my task,"

a. Who was nervous? The poet, Gokak

b. What did he want to ask? He wanted to ask Mother India what he should sing about her.

c. Why did he want to sing? He loved his country. He wanted to praise his country

2. "Querulous. I said: Is there no song that I can sing of you?"
3. "On which she sat and wrote the book of the Morrow"
4. "It was clear dawn like a nightmare fled the night"
5. "Shall I sing Of your clear dawn with pure gold streaks"
6. "Sing of the filth and dirt That foul my sylvan retreats."
7. "Shall I sing Of your rock cut temples, epics in stone"
8. "Of your children that died to call you their own."

Picture description.

A Hero

A report about a boy in the newspaper was an unexpected event in Swami's life. Justify.

The newspaper carried a report about a village boy who had fought bravely against a tiger, while he was returning home by the jungle path. Swami argued that a boy could not fight a tiger, he had to be a strong and grown-up person. His father disagreed saying that courage was more important. Swami was not ready to accept this. His father then challenged him to show his courage by sleeping alone in the office that night. While Swami was sleeping there, he saw a dark figure. Believing it to be the devil, Swami dug his teeth into its leg. It turned out to be a notorious burglar whose loud cry brought others to the scene. The burglar was caught and Swami became a hero over night.

1. Swami's father drew his attention to a report in the newspaper. What was the report about?

The newspaper carried a report about the bravery of a village boy who came face to face with a tiger while returning home by the village path. He stayed half a day on the tree till some people came and killed the tiger.

2. What comment did Swami make when he heard the newspaper report? How did his view differ from that of his father?

Swami felt that a boy could not fight with a tiger and it must have been a strong and grown up person. His father disagreed saying that strength and age were not so important. Courage was important.

3. What challenge did Swami's father put to him?

Swami's father challenged him to sleep alone in his office room that night which was a frightful proposition. He always slept beside his granny so any change in this arrangement kept him trembling and awake all night.

4. Why did father want Swami to sleep alone in the office room?

Swami's father wanted Swami to sleep alone in the office room to show his courage. He also wanted Swami to leave sleeping beside his granny like a baby. He wanted Swami develop good habits. -

Extracts

1. "Leave alone strength. Can you prove you have courage?"
 - a. who is the speaker? Ans: Swami's father was the speaker
 - b. who is you refer to? Ans: you refers to Swami
 - c. how does he want to prove his courage? Ans: he wants to prove his courage by sleeping alone in office room.
2. "A frightful proposition"
3. "You must sleep alone hereafter"
4. "Your office room is very dusty and there may be scorpions behind your law books".
5. "He wished that the tiger had not spared the boy"
6. "Aiyo, something has bitten me."
7. The inspector said, "Why don't you join the police when you are grown up?"
8. "No wonder he wanted to be asleep before I could return home. Clever boy!"
9. "Congratulations were showered".
10. "How could a boy fight a tiger?"
11. "Courage is everything, strength and age are not important"
12. "Swami listen to this: News has been received about the bravery of a village lad who while returning home by the jungle path came face to face with a tiger....."
13. "We are going to admit the elders in our cricket club hereafter"
14. "From the first of the next month, I'll sleep alone father."

A Girl by the tracks

Give a brief account of how Baleshwar helped the girl on the tracks. Or Baleshwar was God sent to Roma. Justify.

When Baleshwar saw the girl lying on the tracks, he jumped down from the moving train and ran towards her. There was no help in her sight so he lifted her up, crossed the tracks and walked till he reached the road. He waited patiently with the girl in his arms for a long time. He stopped a number of motorists but no one heeded to his call. Finally, a tempo truck driver stopped and helped him to take the girl to a hospital nearby where she was given first aid. The doctor there advised him to take her to a big hospital. Baleshwar did this and the girl got the necessary medical care and was cured.

Extracts

1. "There is a girl by the tracks!" the voices cried out.

a. Who is the girl mentioned here?

Ans:Roma

b. Whose voices were these?

Ans:Passengers in the opposite train.

c. Why did the voices cry out?

Ans:They saw Roma falling from the train on the tracks.

2. "Let's go and help her."

3. "I hope I'm not too late."

4. "Behanji ,aap theek hai?" he asked .But there was no response, and no help in sight.

5. "My sister is injured, Please help me take her to a hospital."But no one stopped.

6. "Take the girl to Airoli," suggested the cop, "there's a hospital there."But Baleshwar disagreed.

7. "What's your name? Whom can I call?"

8. "Chacha, can I borrow your mobile?"

9. "Oh ,I couldn't thank him," Baleshwar thought."

10. "I can't imagine what would have happened if Baleshwar hadn't been there."

11. "I think it's astonishing that a stranger would jump off a train and risk his life for me. I can never repay Baleshwar."

12. "They fear getting trapped in the courts or with the police."

Gentleman of Rio en Media

1. Describe the old man's property.

The old man's house was small, wretched but attractive in an old fashioned way. His Orchard was gnarled and beautiful. A small stream ran through his land.

2. Explain briefly the appearance Don Anselmo.

Don Anselmo wore an old, green faded coat. His gloves too were old and torn and his finger tips showed through them and carried a cane which was the skeleton of a worn – out umbrella.

3. How do you say that Don Anselmo was generous?

Don Anselmo was generous because he was a man of principles. He refused to take the extra money offered by the Americans for his land. He planted a plant for every child born in Rio en Medio. He thought that the trees did not belong to him but to the children.

Extracts

1. "It took months of negotiation to come to an understanding with the old man. He was in no hurry. What he had the most of was time."

a. Who is the old man here?

Don Anselmo

b. What was the negotiation about?

Selling of the old man's land

c. Why do you think it took months to come to an understanding?

Because he was in no hurry to sell the land

2. 'The old man removed his hat and gloves carefully'

3. "We have made a discovery"

4. "These Americans are Buena gente"

5. He said, "I do not like to have you speak to me in that manner"

6. "I have agreed to sell my house and land for twelve hundred dollars and that is the price?"

7. "I did not sell them the trees in the Orchard. The trees in that orchard are not mine."

8. "When one signs a deed and sells real property one sells also everything that grows on the land, and those trees,"

9. "There was nothing we could do. Legally we owned the trees but the old man had been so generous, refusing what amounted to a fortune for him"

10. "He lived up in Rio en Medio where his ancestors lived. He tilled the same land they had tilled"

11) "One day they came back to the office to complain. The children of the village were overrunning their property"

Dr B R Ambedkar.

1. Ambedkar was a voracious reader. Justify this statement. or Ambedkar was a voracious reader. Discuss or Describe Dr. Ambedkar's love for books. Or How can you say.

Dr. B.R. Ambedkar had an insatiable thirst for books. He bought books by curtailing his daily needs. In New York he is said to have purchased about 2,000 old books. At the time of the Second Round Table Conference in London, he bought so many books that they had to be sent to India in 32 boxes

2.. Why did Nehru choose Dr. B. R. Ambedkar as the first Law Minister of India?

Jawahar Lal Nehru had recognised Dr. Ambedkar's skills in the field of law and legislation. It was also a tribute to his vision of social injustice as well as to the success of Dr. Ambedkar's campaigns against social injustice.

3. Who described Baba Saheb as 'a symbol of revolt'? Why?

Pt. Jawahar Lal Nehru described Baba Saheb as a 'symbol of revolt' when he passed away in December 1956. He said that he kept the people's mind awake and did not allow them to become satisfied about matters which could not be forgotten. He helped in rousing up those groups in India which had suffered for so long in the past.

The Concert

1. Do you consider Ananth a talented boy? Justify your answer.

Yes, Anant was a talented boy. He was the best table - tennis player in the school and the fastest runner. He was learning to play the Sitar and was already able to compose his own tunes.

2. In what way was the truth frightening to Smitha?

Though Smitha and her family had pretended Anant would get well, she had known that Anant was going to die of cancer. This was frightening to Smitha.

3. What was the chance of a lifetime for Ananth?

Ananth was a music lover and was also learning to play sitar. Listening to Sitar maestro's music and attending his concert was the chance of lifetime for Anant.

4. 'Suddenly a daring thought came to her' what was the daring thought?

Smitha knew that her brother Anant was dying of cancer. She wanted to fulfill his wish. So she thought of going to the concert and request Pandit Ravi Shankar to perform for her brother.

5. Why do you think that Smitha and Ravi Shankar deserve the appreciation of readers?

Smitha could not take Anant with her to the concert because he was suffering from cancer. She went to the concert with her father and enjoyed Ravi Shankar's recital. She also wanted her brother to listen to Ravi Shankar's music. So, she approached Ravi Shankar and told all about Anant and requested him to come to his house and play sitar. No one could imagine that a great musician like Ravi Shankar would agree to her request. But he along with tabla maestro Ustad Allah Rakha played for Anant. Thus Smitha and Ravi Shankar deserve our appreciation.

Extracts

1. "You'll wake him up. You know he needs all the sleep and rest he can get."

a. Who do the words you and he refer to here?

'You' refers to Smita and 'He' refers to Anant.

b. Who said these words and why?

Smita's mother said these words because Smita showed excitement after seeing the announcement from the newspaper about the concert.

c. Why did he need rest?

He was suffering from cancer and had become very weak.

2. "We mustn't miss the chance "he said. I've-I've –always wanted to hear him and see him."

3. "Take him home. Give him the things he likes, indulge him"

4. "A walk in the park might make you feel better"

5. "But they did not voice their fears"

6 "Enjoy yourself, lucky you!"

7. "Panditji is a busy man. You must not bother him with such requests."

8. "No, how can I? We've always done things together"

9 "Tomorrow morning we perform for the boy"

10. "They could not believe their eyes. 'It is It's not possible?' they said."

11. "This is not the last time they are going to play."

Colours of silence

1. Narrate the circumstances that compelled Satish to stay at home.

One holiday Satish was hiking with his father and brother. They were crossing a rickety bridge over some rapids. Satish looked down at the swirling water below him. His foot slipped. He lost his balance and fell into the rapids. As a result of this his legs and head were injured.'

His legs became weak. He suffered frequently from bouts of fever and ear infections. He could not hear. The teacher did not allow him to come to school because he was hard of hearing and frequently absent for the class. His father tried to get admission for him in some other school, but in vain. When he went outside to play with children, they teased him. Therefore he was compelled to stay at home.

2. “Physical disability is no barrier to success”. Justify the statement with reference to the life of Satish Gujral.

Satish Gujral, met with an accident and became deaf. He was refused admission by schools because he was not a normal boy. Boys made fun of him and therefore he remained at home. One day he saw a beautiful bird which had a longish tail and a black crest. That made him take up drawing and painting. His father admitted him to one of the best schools of arts. Within a short time, Satish learnt not only drawing and painting but also about life.

Today Satish is one of the best artists in India. Exhibitions of his work have been held all over the world. He has published four books in arts. The Govt. of India has honoured him with the Padma Vibhushan. He has also been awarded the Order of the Crown.

2. Describe the bird that Satish Gujral saw from his window. What effect did it have on him.

One day, when Satish Gujral was looking gloomily into the corner of his garden, he saw a beautiful bird. He had not seen such a beautiful bird before. It had a longish tail and a black crest. It had restless energy. Its eyes kept darting here and there, its whole body ready for flight any moment. Satish stared at the bird for a long moment. When it flew away, he took out his notebook and pencil and sketched the bird from memory. He got interested in drawing and painting. His father admitted him to one of the best schools of arts. Satish became one of the best artists in India.

NARAYANPUR INCIDENT

1. Why had the students been marching? How was it an unusual march?

The students were marching to give a notice to the collector and protest against the arrest of a school teacher. It was unusual because it went silently without slogans, shouts and violence. Even though there were policemen, they marched as if the policemen didn't exist.

2. Babu and Manju were a bit disappointed with the way students were marching. What was the reason?

The students marched back to their homes silently and Manju and Babu thought that the students were scared of the police. According to them, the students should have protested. So they were disappointed.

3. What was there in the mysterious parcel? What suspicion did the police have about that?

There was a cyclostyle machine in the mysterious parcel. The police suspected that Mohan and his family were making copies of Mahatma's speech and some people were hiding to work against the British.

4. Why had Patil, the sub – inspector come to Mohan’s house? Who believed him? What was the result?

Patil the sub-inspector came to Mohan’s house to inform about the raid of his house. As he was a close friend of Mohan’s father, he asked Mohan to give him the cyclostyle machine and all proof pertaining to the agitation against the British. Mohan’s mother believed him and allowed him to take away all these things.

A great martyr ever cherished

1. Life for Hanif in the beginning was never a smooth sail. Why was it so?

Hanif lost his father when he was just eight years old. His mother a vocal artiste, was out very often with the performance wing. Therefore he became very responsible at a tender age.

2. The absence of mother from home taught the children something. What was that?

Hanif’s mother a vocal artiste would often have to leave the children alone as she travelled with the performance wing. The kids became very responsible getting up and getting ready for school without her having told them and learnt that one’s duty is the most important thing in one’s life.

3. How does the writer describe the ‘introvert’ Hanif?

Hanif began to make friends only by the time he was 14 years of age. He often went out of his way to help people. By doing so, he derived joy.

1. As a boy, Lal Bahadur Shastri was mischievous, but always cheerful. He had a kind heart. Once, he and his uncle went for a stroll. It was getting dark. An old man who was selling mangoes saw them. He said, "Sir, it is getting dark. I will sell these mangoes cheap; just give me one anna (six paise of today) for a hundred. The two searched their pockets and scraped together an anna and gave it to him. The vendor started counting the fruits. When he reached fifty, Lal Bahadur asked him to stop and to keep the change. Later his uncle asked him why he had done so. The boy replied, "A hundred mangoes for an anna is too cheap. He was prepared to suffer a loss and sell them at that rate only because it was going dark. It was hard on him. So, I asked him to keep the change

Swachh Bharat Abhiyan:

Swachh Bharat Abhiyan is a campaign launched by the Prime Minister, Narendra Modi as a nationwide cleanliness campaign. It is implemented to full fill the vision and mission of clean India one day. It was launched especially on the birth anniversary of the Mahatma Gandhi as he always dreamed and was very keen to make this country a clean country. He had tried for clean India during his time by motivating people through his campaigns and slogans however it was only partially successful because of the limited involvement of the people of India. But after so many years, Swachh Bharat Mission was again started by the Government of India to make the dream of clean India come true till 150th birth anniversary of the Mahatma Gandhi. It was started in 2014 on 2nd of October on the 145th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi. It is a big challenge for all the citizens of India. It is only possible if each and every person living in India would understand this campaign, their own responsibility and try to join hands together to make it a successful mission.
