

1ST PUC

English Examination
Grammar

Correction of Sentences

ARTICLES

1. My friend is a honest man. an honest man
2. A Ganga is a holy river. The Ganga The Ganga
3. He hit upon a idea of enlisting the help of his colleagues. The idea
4. He is elected as a MLA. an MLA
5. Once upon a time a elephant made a friendship with a man. an elephant
6. He asked me for an sum of money. a sum
7. Rohan was an first to arrive. The first
8. Honesty is a best policy. The best
9. I met a elderly gentleman on the street. an elderly
10. He is an curator of the museum. a curator
11. A more the merrier. The more
12. Sugar is bad for your teeth. The sugar
13. Eggs are sold by an dozen. The dozen
14. He plays guitar so well. The guitar
15. I know a French. The French

PREPOSITIONS

1. I prefer coffee more than tea. Coffee to tea
2. He shot for the tiger but missed. at the tiger
3. He accompanied with his friends. Accompanied his friends.
4. We walked ten kms by foot. on foot.
5. I am blessed by good health. with good health.
6. Mr. Kumar presided in the meeting. over the meeting
7. Can you think with anyone who can get the job done? Of anyone
8. The baby was dressed with blue. in blue
9. You must stand with me in times of difficulties. by me.
10. He confessed about the crime. to crime.
11. If you do not show it for me, I will shoot you down. to me
12. The curse begins from 1 July. on 1st july
13. Why don't you write with ink? in ink?
14. Do not be rude with people. to people.
15. She is married with her cousin. to her cousin.

TENSE

1. I am knowing your brother. I know
2. I am liking it. I like
3. He has took my books. has taken
4. He is wanting to return to his motherland. He wants to
5. Fortune is favouring the brave. Fortune favours
6. I am forgetting your name. I have forgoten
7. People have the luxury to be saying what they want. to saying
8. When is the train arriving? train arrive?
9. I am having a sweet tooth. I have a You have practiced
10. If you would have practiced regularly, you would have won the match.
11. These boxes are weighing thirty tonnes. boxes weigh
12. You are looking gorgeous in this dress You look
13. She has ate the apple. has eaten
14. Can't you delay to release the manifesto to the public? delay releasing
15. He takes bath. He is bathing.
16. Geetha did not went to college today. not go to

SUBJECT - VERB AGREEMENT

1. Every room in this college are neat and clean. is neat
2. A flock of birds are flying overhead, is flying
3. The team have come prepared. has come
4. Slow and steady win the race. wins the race.
5. Ten kilometers are a short distance. a short
6. Information are helpful. is helpful
7. The horse and carnage are at the door. is at the door.
8. The news are interesting. is interesting
9. Bread and butter are his only food. is his only food.
10. My pair of shoes are missing. Is missing.
11. My shoes is torn. are torn.
12. The furniture were arranged. was arranged.
13. Dieting are bad for health. is bad for health.
14. The committee have submitted Its report. has submitted
15. Half of the oranges is rotten. are rotten.

WORD ORDER

1. Why you are late? are you late
2. When you did come? did you come
3. Why you didn't come? Didn't you come He went along with his wife
4. He went to the village to sell his property along with his wife.
5. She has been waiting for him still. She has been still
6. Still he is unable to decide. He is still unable
7. He only lost his wallet. He lost only his wallet
8. The two first members of the group are active participants. The first two
9. The boy is my son who spoke first In the competition.
The boy who spoke first in the competition is my son
10. You should regularly study if you wish to do well in the exams. Study regularly
11. Daily you must plan your routine daily routine
12. When you decide to did come? When did you
13. She did in the competition very well held last week. did very well
14. He is late always for class. is always late
15. Always children like to play. Children always like

THANK YOU

DOWNLOAD PDF IN LEARN EASILY APP