

1st PUC

English examination

Grammar

Homophones and

Word class

1. The Elephant said that he would return (written / return) his kindness.
2. The lion wanted peace (piece / peace) and tranquility In his kingdom.
3. The man was given a site (site / sight) to build a new hut.
4. The medicinal creeper has small leaves (leaves / lives) resembling betel leaves.
5. The narrator asked Mara how he had come to lose (loose / lose) his teeth on one side.
6. The swelling on the bone of my heel (heel / heal) disappeared soon after.
7. I ate a piece (piece / peace) of root.
8. Learning to write (write / right) an address in English was considered great education.
9. The narrator found that he had lost his wallet (wallet / valet) In the restaurant.
10. Babar Ali was an ideal (ideal / idle) student in his school.

11. Babar Ah must be commended for the audacity of (of / off) hoping.

12. Mara was locked in a celler (seller / cellar) behind the old temple.

13. Bhima can swing an elephant by Its tail (tale / tail).

14. I often see (sea / see) at the dead of night, a tiger comes to the lake to slake its thirst.

15. Mara cowered (cowered / covered) at the sight of the goddess.

16. The king was afraid that it was the last (last / lost) day of the world.

17. Mara's last (last / lost) request was to make his son the watchman of the lake.

18. Douglass' mother was with him In the night (night / knight).

19. Anthony's farms (forms / farms) were taken care of by Mr. Plu mmer.

20. Verona Is a love'y city with quiet (quite / quiet) medieval streets and buildings.

21. The two boys were sitting on the pavement beneath the pale (pale / pail) arc lights.

22. Lucia sat propped upon pillows, looked very weak (weak / week).

23. After the war, food was scarce and dear (dear / deer) in Verona.

24. The village headman asked Mara not knot / not) to meet the king.

25. Mara wrapped the meat (meet / meat) in the leaves.

THANK YOU

DOWNLOAD PDF IN LEARN EASILY APP